This interactive video workshop empowers you to help yourself, and others, using a technique so simple yet effective, so affordable yet comprehensive. Quantum-Touch® Technique may be used for life. Whatever you or your loved one's pain and trauma, there is every hope that they can be relieved and even reversed, back to joyous health. This joy and health has been experienced by so many.

Certificates of completion will be given by Quantum-Touch®, USA. Those who wish to may go on to be Certified Practitioners.

Who can benefit?

You! Your journey into self healing and helping others to heal begins here. The conditions that may be healed can be physical, mental/emotional or spiritual. In a holistic manner.

Workshop Content

The video workshop is designed for people to learn Quantum-Touch® together in a group setting. There are 4 three hour modules, with rest and lunch breaks added. During the video workshop, people have time to ask questions, practice the breathing and body awareness exercises, and practice on each other. There are short 15-minute sessions, longer sessions, group healing sessions, sweeping sessions with partners, breathing practice, internal toning, and chakra sessions.

Complimentary

Quantum Touch may be used by itself, or together with any other hands-on healing techniques, enhancing them tremendously. Whether you are a complete novice, a Reiki practitioner, chiropractor, acupuncturist, reflexologist, Qigong practitioner, massage therapist, or other health-care professional.

Healing

Painful conditions may often be relieved within a single session and conditions considered medically impossible to correct have often been healed. The ability to dramatically reduce pain and accelerate the healing process is an easily learned and invaluable skill.
